Summary

I am a motivated film school graduate with industry experience, having worked alone and as part of a team. I am looking for work in both the media and the service industries. My goal is to become a valuable and collaborative team member while building upon my service, social and, where possible, editorial skills. Alongside this I hope to make meaningful work and social connections in Bristol.

I have experience working with customers both in retail environments and within a client-business relationship. I believe with my experience, skills and motivation I can be a great asset and provide quality service.
